What are some of the books that have influenced and challenged you in your faith? The Bible, Mere Christianity, The Greatest Salesman in the World, Fresh Wind, Fresh Fire, Every Man's Battle, Velvet Elvis.

What is your favorite scripture? Isaiah 40:28-31. "Have you not known? Have you not heard? The everlasting God, the LORD, The Creator of the ends of the earth, Neither faints nor is weary. His understanding is unsearchable. He gives power to the weak, And to those who have no might He increases strength. Even the youths shall faint and be weary, And the young men shall utterly fall, But those who wait on the LORD Shall renew their strength; They shall mount up with wings like eagles, They shall run and not be weary, They shall walk and not faint."

How do you understand the role as youth minister here at ESCC? Hopefully bring them to a personal relationship with Jesus Christ. Help them to have a faith that is their own. Demand more of them, not less. Give them time, be real, and love them.

What is the one thing you enjoy most about being a youth minister? Seeing them later in life, where they're at, and what they've been doing and that Christ is still a part of their lives.

When were you baptized? April 15, 1973

How do you personally connect, grow and serve? Prayer, always prayer. Staying in the Word. Fellowshiping with other Christians, yet spending time with those who aren't yet. As far as service, do it willingly; if your heart's not in it, then neither are your hands.
