John 17:1-26

Thoughts to consider:

This is Jesus' longest recorded prayer, and the last one He prayed in public. It should be known as "The Lord's Prayer" as He Himself prayed it. The prayer in Matthew 6:9-13 and Luke 11:1-4 is only a model prayer given as a template for our prayer life.

John 17:1-26

Thoughts to consider:

Jesus prayed for three things: for Himself (1-8), for His disciples (9-19) and for the church (20-26). Reread verses 20-24 and know He prayed this for you.

John 17:1-26

Psalms 28:2

Psalms 63:4

1 Timothy 2:8

Thoughts to consider:

Jesus looked up to heaven when He prayed, which was the traditional Jewish posture for prayer. Possibly He also raised His hands. Our custom is to bow our heads. Whatever our posture, God wants our prayers.

John 17:1-26

Thoughts to consider:

Verse six tells of the important task Jesus had, and one that He completed. He revealed God to us! And because we know God and His son, Jesus, we can have eternal life. Knowing implies a relationship. Do you know God, or just know of Him?

Friday, Nov. 20Scripture to read:

John 17:1-26

Thoughts to consider:

Unity is such an important aspect of the church. It models the unity of God and Jesus. Our ability to get along with each other, to show love in spite of problems and to forgive is a powerful witness to the world. They are led to believe in God's power and love when we, the church, are able to model it.

Scripture to read:

John 17:1-26

Thoughts to consider:

Know you are loved. Jesus wants you to be with Him, always and forever in heaven.

Truly something to look forward to!
